HOTEL BELLECLAIRE NEW YORK

Broadway at 77th St. Surface Cars at Door. Subway at 79th St. Only a few minutes from the District.

The season for country sausages and griddle cakes has arrived. The memory of last season's good country sausage and good griddle cakes served at the BELLECLAIRE seems to linger in the minds of people, judging from the number of them who order these great dishes for breakfast.

Many men and women are dropping in for an old-fashioned breakfast—the kind they liked so much as boys and girls on the farm.

It is astonishing how many New Yorkers there are who like the same kind of food that their mothers supplied them when they were rugged country boys and girls.

The BELLECLAIRE caters to their appetites. They all say: "What fine breakfasts, lunches, dinners and midnight suppers we can get at the Belleclaire."

ROBERT D. BLACKMAN.
